Dear [REDACTED]

Thank you for your request of 30 July 2024, for the release of information held by the Civil Aviation Authority (CAA). For reference your original enquiry was as follows:

Original enquiry (given reference number F0006925)

I should be grateful if you could advise, under the Freedom of Information Act, whether a licence has been applied for or enquired about for the above Space Port in the north of Scotland. [* "the above" referenced the subject line which read as "Sutherland Space Port"]*

Clarification received from applicant (give reference number F0006936)

I refer to the Sutherland Space Port, or sometimes it is called the Sutherland Space Hub.

Your request has been considered in line with the provisions of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (FOIA). I can confirm that the CAA holds some information within scope of the above request.

As can be seen from the publicly available press release Orbex for Spaceport Sutherland, based in A' Mhòine, Lairg IV27 4AJ Scotland, (and formerly known as Space Hub Sutherland) have submitted an application to the CAA for a launch licence:

Orbex applies for licence to launch first rockets from Scotland | Orbex

If you are not satisfied with how we have dealt with your request in the first instance you should approach the CAA in writing at:-

CAA INTERNAL REVIEW & COMPLAINTS PROCEDURE

- The original case to which the appeal or complaint relates is identified and the case file is made available;
- The appeal or complaint is allocated to an Appeal Manager, the appeal is acknowledged and the details of the Appeal Manager are provided to the applicant;
- The Appeal Manager reviews the case to understand the nature of the appeal or complaint, reviews the actions and decisions taken in connection with the original case and takes account of any new information that may have been received. This will typically require contact with those persons involved in the original case and consultation with the CAA Legal Department;
- The Appeal Manager concludes the review and, after consultation with those involved with the case, and with the CAA Legal Department, agrees on the course of action to be taken;
- The Appeal Manager prepares the necessary response and collates any information to be provided to the applicant;
- The response and any necessary information is sent to the applicant, together with information about further rights of appeal to the Information Commissioners Office, including full contact details.
