False Representation Statement & Competent Authority Declaration

It is an offence under the UK Air Navigation Order to make, with intent to deceive, any false representation for the purpose of procuring the grant, issue, renewal or variation of any certificate, licence, approval, permission or other document. This offence is punishable on summary conviction by a fine and on conviction on indictment with an unlimited fine or up to two years imprisonment or both.

Pursuant to ARA.FCL.215(d) to Regulation (EU) 1178/2011 as retained (and amended in UK domestic law) under the European Union (Withdrawal) Act 2018, the Civil Aviation Authority allows the privileges specified in Section 2 below to be exercised by the named applicant below for up to 8 weeks from the date entered on this Certificate below subject to the applicant's examiner's certification (by signature below) of the successful completion by the applicant of the applicable requirements under UK Reg (EU) No 1178/2011.

Instructions to Examiner

The examiner is responsible for ensuring the test/check or assessment of competence has been passed in accordance with the requirements of Part FCL and relevant guidance documents.

Only the examiner conducting the test, check or assessment of competence may sign this Temporary Certificate after verifying the applicant has fulfilled all the applicable requirements and the application is accompanied by a valid completion certificate from the relevant Approved Training Organisation (as required).

Any Temporary Certificate issued when the applicable requirements have not been fully met will be, immediately, provisionally suspended and the subsequent application may be rejected.

The pilot must carry this signed original Temporary Certificate whenever exercising the privileges of this Temporary Certificate.
