NOTES

NOTE 1: When making an application for the issue, revalidation or renewal of an OJTI endorsement the applicant must have a current unit endorsement on their licence and a valid medical.

NOTE 2: REVALIDATIONS. Refresher training can take place anytime within the endorsements validity period.

Consideration should be given as to when applications for revalidation are submitted to the CAA.

If the application is made within 90 days of the endorsements expiry date the CAA Licensing Assessment will issue the revalidated endorsement to be valid from the expiry date with a validity period of three years.

If the application is made earlier in the validity period i.e. after the completion of the refresher training the CAA Licensing Assessment will issue the revalidated endorsement to be valid from the refresher training date with a validity period of three years.

It is therefore recommended that applications are submitted within the 90 days prior to the current endorsement expiry date to maximise the validity period.

NOTE 3: RENEWALS. For Assessor and OJTI/STDI endorsement renewals, regulation 2015/340 requires that the endorsement must have an issue date within 30 days of the competence assessment date.

If the application is received by CAA Licensing Assessment within 30 days of the competence assessment date the issue date will be set as the date the competence assessment was completed and the expiry date 3 years after this date.

If an application is received more than 30 days after the competence assessment date, the issue date will be set to 30 days after the competence assessment date and the expiry date 3 years after this date.

NOTE 4: Exchange of OJTI Licence Endorsement for STDI.

Holders of an OJTI endorsement can carry out the duties of an STDI without exchanging their OJTI endorsement for an STDI endorsement.

For an OJTI to carry out the duties of an STDI it is not necessary to be medically fit.

It should only be necessary for an OJTI, who wishes to carry out STDI duties, to exchange their endorsement for an STDI if they are unable to revalidate their OJTI licence endorsement.

The STDI endorsement will be issued with the same expiry date as the current OJTI endorsement.

Once exchanged it is not possible to exchange back, therefore the holder of an STDI endorsement whose OJTI endorsement has expired, must complete the OJTI renewal process to regain their OJTI endorsement .
To enable this, the OJTI endorsement, with its expiry date, will remain on the licence after exchange .
